DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY.

(Revenue.)

PROPOSALS FOR IMPROVING STATISTICS OF INDIAN SEA-BORNE TRADE.

Calcutta, the 5th January 1912.

No. 98-100-37.

RESOLUTIONS.—The Government of India have had under consideration certain proposals for improving the statistics of Indian Sea-borne Trade. In his despatch No. 184 (Revenue), dated the 25th October 1907, the Secretary of State forwarded for the consideration of the Government of India a copy of a Resolution, adopted at the Colonial Conference of 1907, in favour of greater uniformity in the trade statistics of the British Empire, together with a note which had been prepared by the Board of Trade containing certain suggestions as to the manner in which the desired uniformity should be secured.

2. The proposals considered by the Government of India were directed to the attainment of three objects: firstly, the improvement of the systems of classification at present employed in the Sea-borne Trade Statistics of India; secondly, the revision of the method of arrangement of articles in the detailed tables; and, thirdly, the revision and simplification of the lists of articles to be distinguished separately.

3. The existing system of classification in the Sea-borne Trade Statistics of India shows the articles under seven main heads as follows:—

I. Animals, Brigs.

II. Articles of feed and drink.

III. Metals and manufactures of metals.

IV. Chemicals, Drugs, Medicines and Narcotics, Dyeing and Tanning Materials.

V. Oils.

VI. Raw materials and unmanufactured articles.

VII. Articles manufactured and partly manufactured.

This system of classification, which was introduced into the Indian statistics in 1855, was based on that adopted in the Import Summaries of the monthly statistics of the United Kingdom in 1854. It has, however, been discarded from the latter since 1903, and is undoubtedly defective in so far as it ignores the local lines of classification of articles, (a) with reference to their nature, and (b) with reference to the purposes for which they are used. The classification now adopted in the trade accounts of the United Kingdom distinguishes between four main heads:—

- (1) Food, drink and tobacco.
- (2) Raw materials and articles mainly unmanufactured.
- (3) Articles wholly or mainly manufactured.
- (4) Miscellaneous and unclassified (including parcel post).

The Government of India have decided to abandon the present system of classification into seven main heads and to introduce the system of classification into four main heads as specified above. This classification will be adopted in the Summaries which will be prefixed to the Monthly Accounts and to the Annual Statement of the Sea-borne Trade of British India, on the model of those prefixed to the Monthly Accounts and Annual Statement of the Trade of the United Kingdom with Foreign Countries and British Possessions. A classification of summaries, also in the form appended to this Resolution, will be substituted for the "Classified List of Articles the trade of which is separately recorded in Tables 9 to 11," which is at present prefixed to the Tables of Accounts in Volume I of the Annual Statements of the Sea-borne Trade of British India.

4. With regard to the method of arrangement of articles in the detailed tables following the Summaries, the Government of India have decided to adopt, so far as possible, both in the Monthly Accounts and Annual Statement, the arrangement followed in the United Kingdom returns. In the detailed tables of these returns there is no subdivision under main heads, but the articles are arranged continuously in alphabetical order, provision being made for grouping together within the alphabetical order such articles as are related industrially or commercially. The arrangement which will be adopted in the Indian tables is shown in the list of articles imported, exported or re-exported, appended to this Resolution. It should be observed, however, that this arrangement will not affect Tables 8 and 16 in Volume II of the Annual Statement of the Sea-borne Trade of British India, which, as they have special reference to payment of Customs duty, will follow, as at present, the arrangement of articles adopted in the Schedules to the Import Tariff. For convenience of reference to the summaries and Classification of Summaries mentioned in the preceding paragraph, there will be shown opposite to each article in the detailed tables a number indicating its appropriate main group in the Summaries and a letter indicating its position within that group.

5. With regard to the revision and simplification of the list of articles separately enumerated in the returns of Sea-borne Trade, a list of articles to be dealt with was prescribed by the Government of India in 1875, and was last revised in 1897. An attempt was subsequently made in 1906 to distinguish the more important articles comprised in the sub-heading "Other sorts," but it was not found possible at that time to complete the revision contemplated. The matter has again been taken up, and three revised lists of articles imported, exported and re-exported, have now been framed after reference to the several maritime Chambers of Commerce. These lists are appended to this Resolution. The main differences between them and the list of 1875, as subsequently revised, are as follows:—

(1) The scope of some of the existing comprehensive headings has been narrowed by the elevation of certain sub-heads to the position of independent heads. For example, the comprehensive heading "Hardware and Cutlery including Electro-plated ware" has been split up into "Cutlery" and "Cutlery including Electro-plated ware" under "E." The ground on which this change has been effected is that the sub-heads in question constitute distinct branches of trade or manufacture, and, as such, their subordination to, or grouping with, other sub-heads is undesirable.

(2) A considerable number of articles, the trade in which is at present registered under the sub-head "Other sorts" or "All other articles unenumerated," have been selected for separate enumeration.

(3) Certain items which occur in the existing list, but which now represent trade on a relatively small scale, have been omitted from the revised lists. Such omitted articles will be merged in the relevant "Other sorts" sub-heads or in the head "All other articles unenumerated."

6. The new lists will be adopted along with the revised system of classification and arrangement above described in the trade returns with effect from the 1st April 1912. The immediate result of the simplification should be to make the published statistics of the sea-borne trade of India more useful, and to facilitate comparison with the statistics of other countries. The question of additions to, or alterations in, the lists will in future be considered annually by the Director-General of Commercial Intelligence in the light of applications received or of other information.

7. The changes detailed above will also be introduced into the several tables of the annual volumes of sea-borne trade published by the maritime Local Governments.

8. The Government of India are satisfied that no loss of information now presented will be entailed by the abandonment of the existing classification into seven main heads, or by the changes to be introduced in the list of articles and in the tables of the published accounts. With the exception of the items which have been omitted as being too unimportant for retention, the existing detailed heads will be preserved under the revised arrangements. As regards such heads the subsequent will therefore not be affected by the changes proposed, and continuity of record in respect of individual items will not be lost.

† The examination in Book-keeping, Book-keeping, Commercial Geography, Book-keeping, and in Typewriting (Elementary and Intermediate grade) will be conducted according to the syllabus revised up to 12th June 1913.

‡ The syllabus for "Commercial Geography" has been replaced by the syllabus for "Theory and Practice of Commerce."

¶ Candidates writing up in Typewriting must bring with them their own typewriter—like Book-keeping, Year, Day, Country, South America, Germany, Russia, United States, Japan, Australia, and New Zealand. The candidates will be examined on dictation, but at least one of the candidates for the Elementary grade, at least one of the candidates for the Intermediate grade, and at least one of the candidates for the Advanced grade must have one machine among them.

As the application has to be kept in the office and as the drawings, etc., have to be forwarded to the examiner, the application itself should be sent in a separate cover and not stuffed up with the drawings, etc.

A candidate who failed, or having applied, did not appear, at a previous examination, must submit fresh drawings, etc. The drawings, etc., submitted will not be returned.

10. Candidates must send in their applications made up in English on printed forms so that they reach the Commissioner's Office on or before the 31st January, after which date no applications will be received. Only one form of application should be used by each candidate, although he may bring up several subjects and come up for different grades.

11. Candidates in the merchant should obtain the required application forms from the Treasury of the town in which they are residents and of the district in which they belong. Candidates who are residents of Madras should apply for application forms at the Office of the Commissioner for Government Examinations, 611 College, Nanganallur, and not to the Collector of Madras.

N.B.—No notice will be taken of any application from candidates in the merchant requesting to be supplied with application forms from this office.

12. The following is the scale of fees to be paid by candidates for admission to the examination:—

For each subject	Examination. * Intermediate.		Advised.
	Rs.	P.	As.

N.B.—No candidate will be permitted to come up for examinations in more than one grade in the same subject at the same time.

13. The prescribed fee must be paid in every case into a Government Treasury, or, if at Madras, into the Bank of Madras, and the receipt given by the Treasury Officer or the Bank of Madras attached to the application, which must be every case sent to the Commissioner's Office on or before the 31st January. On no account will the fee be returned to the Commissioner's Office, whether sent in cash or by Post Office order. No application will be registered unless it reaches the Commissioner's Office by the date prescribed.

NOTE.—At Madras, in the case of all pupils, the fee shall be collected by the Headmaster and sent in a lump sum to the Bank of Madras together with the date of the pupils, one of which will be returned by the Bank and the other signed and returned to the Headmaster. This letter shall be forwarded to the office along with the application of the candidate. The necessary forms for this purpose will be supplied by this office to Headmasters on application.

14. Each application should be sent direct to the undersigned, post paid, registered and addressed as follows, the receipt for the fee paid being securely fastened to it.

15. Candidates are warned that the application itself should not be submitted with any drawings, plans, surveys, field books, statements, or other "certified works" that may be sent, but should be submitted in a separate cover.

[Application for admission to the Government Technical Examinations.]

To
The Secretary to the Commissioner for Government Examinations,

Nanganallur,

Madras, S.W.

N.B.—Candidates are asked to ensure themselves that their applications have been received should submit an addressed post card or some equivalent application. The post card should bear the candidate's address only, and no other writing. Such post cards will be returned to them in due course with the "Received" stamp of the office impressed upon them. No other form of acknowledgment except that required by the postal rules regarding registered covers can possibly be given, nor will any notice be taken of any letter from any candidate inquiring whether his application has been received. Inconspicuously stamped covers will be rejected.

16. Candidates should write their names, their father's name, and their house number distinctly and in full in their applications and give their address in full also; if "Other Madras" they should state in column 3 of their applications whether they are "Non-Brahman Caste Hindus," or "Pariahs." Applications defective in any particular will be returned.

NOTE.—The signature or position of candidate, or the appointments held by him, should invariably be stated in full in column 10 of their applications.

17. The fee paid will, in no case whatever, be refunded, nor will it be returned for a subsequent examination. Neither will any exam fee that may have been inadvertently paid be returned. Candidates are invited to study the regulations carefully and submit themselves, before sending their fees, that they fulfil the prescribed conditions of admission to the examination and that they are, if necessary, prepared, at their own expense, to attend the whole of the examination series selected by them, for the purpose of undergoing the written, or the oral and practical examinations.

18. Candidates for the Intermediate or Advanced examinations whose names have already been published in the Gazette as having passed a particular stage or stages in subjects in which the examination is divided into stages, or as having passed the Intermediate (New Pattern), where the examination is of two grades—Intermediate and Advanced—must in their applications state the date and page of the Gazette in which their names appear and their number in the list of successful candidates.

MADRAS, TUESDAY EVENING, JANUARY 22, 1902.

[Price, 1 s. 6 d.]

AUDIT REPORT FOR 1901-1902 OF THE TRIPLOCKAN URBAN CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETY, LIMITED, No. 15.

I beg to report on the audit of the accounts of the Triplockan Urban Co-operative Society, Limited, No. 15, in the city of Madras, for the co-operative year 1901-1902. Though the society does both credit and distributive business it is mainly a distributive institution and its transactions in the stores branch are, as usual, greater than those in the credit branch. The following accounts will show that the year under report is a year of steady improvement in the method of its dealings and in the manner of its account-keeping. This fact increased its reputation for trust and confidence, induced public confidence, brought in more members, drew deposits freely and developed transactions in every class of its dealings, nearly double those of the previous year.

3. Members.—The number of members rose from 1,480 at the beginning of the year to 1,849 at its end. During the year there were 313 fresh admissions and 124 withdrawals, nearly six to members leaving left the jurisdiction of the society.

5. Share capital.—The share capital is built up at Rs. 2 per share and the maximum share capital allowable under the existing bye-laws is Rs. 20,000. The previous share capital increased from Rs. 13,503-6-8 at the beginning of the year under report to Rs. 16,677-4-0 at its end. The subscriptions to the share capital received during the year amounted to Rs. 4,665-12-4, while the share capital paid off was Rs. 5,125-12-8.

6. Deposits.—The chief borrowings of the society comprise deposits of various kinds, viz., fixed deposits, current deposits, movable deposits, and fixed deposits and trade advance deposits. Members alone are allowed to make deposits. The following table shows the extent of transactions under this head:—

Name	Held at the beginning of the year	Received during the year	Total	Paid off during the year	Held at the end of the year	Remarks
1. Fixed deposits (including security deposits)	Rs. 8,750 0 0	Rs. 18,472 8 0	27,222 8 0	16,178 8 0	11,044 0 0
2. Current deposits	2,230 8 4	12,416 0 0	14,646 8 4	11,183 12 2	3,462 16 2
3. Other fixed deposits	1,690 11 20	10,840 10 0	12,530 10 0	47,130 10 0	34 10 0
4. Trade advance deposits	102 11 8	0 0 0	102 11 8	102 11 8	0 0 0
Total	12,772 10 0	29,318 8 0	42,090 8 0	73,492 10 0	14,540 16 0

*This includes a sum of Rs. 1-8-6 which was an advance of purchase in a stock fund account which was closed. This item was limited by the society and profit item. Hence it is shown as an account of and the liability is thus cleared.

It will be seen from the above table that the deposits grew from Rs. 12,772-10-0 to Rs. 14,540-16-0 and that members freely make deposits. The society is prompt in its repayments on the loans and the deposits on previous transactions in their dealings with the society. On the 30th June last, there was a sum of Rs. 236-14-8 actually fallen due and not paid under the head of debt funds. This amount related to undistributed bonus of several who trade. Most of these fell due in the months of May and June and were cleared after the close of the year. I was told that the amount could not be paid in time, as some of the amounts to which the interest had to be paid were not of Members the amount involved. The Trade Advances section has now been completely stopped. Under this head, there was a sum of Rs. 41-15-6 due to such depositors. The society should take steps to clear off this amount. In paragraph 7 of the previous year's audit report, the defects pointed out in the method of interest keeping regarding the advances realised under old funds, are now rectified and consistent across a year on the credit and the debit sides of the cash book. The society however retained the practice of paying the interest accounts of a sick fund, before the subsequent parties to that particular sick fund are realised. This is not a safe practice.

6. Interest as deposit.—The society pays interest at 1 and by per cent. on fixed and current deposits respectively. The interest paid during the year was Rs. 775-1-1 and that pending payment at the end of the year was Rs. 118-8-5. Deducting Rs. 171-1-3 the amount pending payment at the end of the previous year from the total interest earned, viz. Rs. 727-1-3 plus Rs. 118-8-5 or Rs. 845-9-8, the amount attributable to the profit and loss account is Rs. 813-7-10. The interest actually due as arrears on the last day of the year was only Rs. 6-4-0 which belonged to a society deposit of a clerk who left service of the society.

5. Miscellaneous receipts.—The items under this head are given below with the amounts of collections during the year noted against each:—

	Rs.	A.	P.
(1) Entrance fees .. .. .	88	12	0

(8) Balance of purchases of groceries and furniture .. .. .	37	1	8
	1,889	5	1
Total .. .. .	3,772	9	1

7. Loans to members.—At the commencement of the year, there were 71 loans aggregating to Rs. 3,138-16-3. During the year 186 loans aggregating to Rs. 9,718 were disbursed. The repayments by members amounted to Rs. 7,671-1-1, of which a sum of Rs. 7,740-8-10 was on account of 126 loans which were fully repaid. At the end of the year, the amount outstanding against members was thus Rs. 4,761-14-6 on account of 85 loans. Of these 12 loans exceeding Rs. 125-14-1 were term-loans without repayments. Members are generally prompt in the repayment of their loans. There was also an advance collection of Rs. 1,854-16-9. The society is also prompt in disposing of loan applications and in satisfying repayments of loans. It provides the 12 cases of arrears loans on the last day of the year, some in the various form loans issued and steps that taken towards their recovery. In the case of loans Nos. 1, 2 and 3 of the loan helps, the loans are being adjusted from the dues to the borrowers out of the share interest and dividend. Most of the loans disbursed were of small sums, for out of 186 loans 156 loans are of sums not exceeding Rs. 50. All the loans were granted for periods not exceeding one year. The following table shows the nature of the loans accepted:—

	No.	Amount.
(1) Loans granted on the security of put-up, whose capital and deposits of members .. .. .	128	6,943
(2) Loans granted on the pledge of immovable property .. .. .	12	1,367
(3) Loans granted on the mortgage of immovable property .. .. .	3	803
(4) Loans granted under the simple bond of the borrower without any collateral security .. .. .	55	718
Total .. .. .	198	9,718

Out of Rs. 9,718 disbursed in loans, Rs. 7,669 were granted for the purchase of stores in the institution itself, Rs. 1,351 for the discharge of prior debts, Rs. 600 for the building of houses and Rs. 315 for successful exposure. It is thus seen that part of the loan was obtained for the purchase of provisions. The credit department thus affords facilities to men of small means in which loans for such purposes are a type of interest for which such men cannot otherwise get loans elsewhere in Malacca. The society thus acts as a sort of voluntary means, enables them to obtain purchases in the local market at substantial rates and thus reduces the tendency of such men in the city of Malacca to incur heavy debts by credit purchases.

4. Interest on loan.—According to the schedule offered, interest is charged on loans to members. On loans secured by deposits of immovable property at charged at 4 1/2 per cent per annum, on those granted on the mortgage of immovable property, 7 1/2 per cent and on mortgage loans and other loans 9 per cent. The interest earned and available to the profit and loss account is as shown below—

	Rs.	S.	D.
Interest realized .. .. .	350	8	5
Accrued during the year and pending realization .. .. .	74	7	4
Total .. .. .	574	15	9
Debit amount pending realization at the close of the previous year .. .. .	55	0	1
Balance to be credited to the profit and loss account .. .. .	519	15	8

5. Defective members.—In paragraph 7 above it has been shown that there were 15 cases of default on the last day of the year and the amount due to the society by way of principal was Rs. 325. A sum of Rs. 11-3-9 was also recoverable by way of interest. Notices to the defaulters were duly given and the action taken was prompt.

6. Establishment charges.—In the audit notes submitted to the Registrar I have given the full details about the establishment. Agreements of the staff are sanctioned by the directors. Pay bills are vouched month after month for the sanction of the President and the payments are made on per centonated bills. Amalgamation are obtained on printed forms and are filed with each book of members. There is thus no difficulty in seeing that the payments are made according to the sanctioned rates. The amount paid during the year was Rs. 8,557-10-7 and the amount pending payment at the close of the year was Rs. 6-1-6. Deducting the sum pending payment at the close of the previous year, viz., Rs. 10-11-4, the amount payable to the profit and loss account is Rs. 8,545-1-7.

The expenditure for the previous year was Rs. 8,521-12-5 while the expenditure for the year under report was Rs. 8,557-10-7. A reduction of nearly Rs. 300 is thus shown substantiating the fact that the volume of work turned out during the year is much larger than that of the previous year in every branch of the business. It is evident from this fact itself that the directors exercise careful attention and maintain only such establishment as is absolutely necessary to get through the work efficiently.

7. Overhead charges.—The expenditure incurred amounted to Rs. 5,381-16-5. Of this amount Rs. 5,235-13-5 pertained to the headquarters and Rs. 146-3-0 to mess and fuel paid and the remaining amount consisted of printing and stationery charges, post and telegraph charges, stamps, seal and official charges and advertisement charges. The amount pending payment at the end of the year—on account of loans—was Rs. 27-5-6. Deducting the sum pending payment at the close of the previous year, viz., Rs. 325 the amount payable to the profit and loss account is Rs. 5,353-5-6. Expenditure is supported by proper vouchers and I cannot check out any of the items not correspond to the audit.

8. Advisory funds.—The following are the details of the items under this head—

(a) Deposit account.—A sum of Rs. 22-7-11 was pending adjustment at the beginning of the year. A sum of Rs. 3,368-15-8 was added to it and Rs. 3,165-8-5 was adjusted during the year. Therefore the sum pending adjustment on the last day of the year was Rs. 18-15-6.

(b) Trifling Literary Society fund.—A sum of Rs. 1,153-17-3 was to the credit of this fund at the beginning of the year. During the year Rs. 25 was added and Rs. 65-8-5 was paid off. The amount at the end of the year was Rs. 1,113-11-8. Additions to Rs. 115-0-1, the amount secured on 1, the total liability against the society at the end of the year was Rs. 1,228-11-9.

(c) Shareholders' deposit.—A sum of Rs. 517-10-4 was the liability against the society at the beginning of the year. Of this sum Rs. 475-2-5 was transferred to the account for the dividend account. During the year Rs. 57-3-5 was added and Rs. 165-15-8 adjusted. Therefore, a sum of Rs. 1,049-1-1 was pending adjustment at the end of the year. The additional dividend transferred to this account should be disposed of early.

(d) Advances due by the society.—A sum of Rs. 75 was due by the society at the beginning of the year. Rs. 13-11-6 was realized and Rs. 15 was paid off during the year. The amount of liability at the end of the year was Rs. 6-15-5.

(e) Advances due to the society.—A sum of Rs. 335-15-4 was pending recovery at the beginning of the year. Rs. 5,391-4-6 was added and Rs. 2,413-14-0 was adjusted during the year; so that, the amount pending recovery at the end of the year was Rs. 470-3-12. In paragraph 13 of the previous year's report my art. 2 was of the 17 is said to have been the difference under this head between the society's figure and that of the auditor. Further, the item is said to be the same as the sum of Rs. 12 given under advances to a supporter in 1905 and as such it is said that it was not shown as an asset in the balance sheet of the society's reports. But from a reference to the reports, I find that the item has been shown as an asset was thus brought to the accounts of the subsequent years. The difference is said to date from 1905 and it could be traced only when the accounts for 1904 are examined.

(f) Investment in the Malacca Central Urban Bank, Limited.—During the year a sum of Rs. 11,709 was invested in the Malacca Central Urban Bank, Limited, and the same was withdrawing against it at the end of the year.

(g) Investment in the Malacca Central Urban Bank, Limited.—The sum of Rs. 475-2-4 pending recovery at the beginning of the year was withdrawn during the year. There being no balance, the amount under this head was closed.

(a) Advance for printing assets of loans.—During the year a sum of Rs. 450 was spent on account of printing account books. Out of this a sum of Rs. 125 was included in contingencies during the year under report and the balance held over for debit under contingencies during the current despatching year. Hence the amount of Rs. 125 is shown as an asset.

15. Assets owned.—It is in this branch that the society turned out the largest volume of business and this will be seen from the following figures:—

	Rs.	S.	P.
Stock in hand at the beginning of the year .. .. .	22,877	14	11
Do purchased during the year .. .. .	4,74,031	15	0

16. Assets property.—The society owns a house. Its value at the beginning of the year as indicated in the previous year's report was Rs. 10,515. During the year a sum of Rs. 125 was spent in improving it. Thus the value of the house was raised to Rs. 11,647. Deducting Rs. 615-7-0 on account of depreciation at 12 per cent. for every half-year on the estimated value, the value of the house at the end of the year was taken to be Rs. 10,561-8-6.

The net profit derived in this department should be carried to the credit of the reserve fund in its entirety under by-law 43.

(b) Net profit of the Distribution Department.—The net profit for the Distribution department is Rs. 10,547-4-2 minus Rs. 123-12-6 or Rs. 10,423-7-6. This includes entrance fees of Rs. 43-12-0 and chit fund contributions of Rs. 68-5-6. Out of Rs. 10-12-0 pertaining to entrance fees, a sum of 4 a annas was a loan collection which was subsequently refunded. Therefore the actual collection as entrance fees is Rs. 85-8-0. Under by-laws 44 and 45 (a), the entrance fees and the chit contributions should be added on to the Reserve fund. The actual collections under these two items amount to Rs. 104-13-6. Debiting this amount, the actual net profit of the Distribution department is Rs. 10,521-12-6.

(c) Under by-laws 41 and 42 this profit is subject to division in the following manner:—

	Rs. A. P.	Rs. A. P.
On the last day of the year 1910-11 there was ..	78 1 3	8,822 1 0

On the last day of the year under report, there was no short above to the credit of this fund a sum of Rs. 4,217-12-1. To this, a sum of Rs. 101-8-0 was also added as interest accrued. The total of the fund then comes to Rs. 4,318-10-7. Out of the profit of the year a sum of Rs. 8,422-1-0 is due to it (para 17 supra). If this is added to the credit, the Common Good fund will be Rs. 9,740-14-7. It is out of this fund that money is sanctioned for the purchase of furniture for the reading rooms and for magazines and newspapers and for the relations of the Co-operative Day.

22. Reserve fund.—The state of the reserve fund is as shown below :—

	In the Past Office.	General funds of the society
	Rs. A. P.	Rs. A. P.
On the last day of the year 1910-11 ..	87 8 11	7,159 18 3
Interest in the year under report ..	..	1,202 11 10
Total ..	87 8 11	8,362 4 1

There was thus a sum of Rs. 8,362-15-0 to the credit of this fund on the last day of the year. Out of transactions of the year under report the Reserve fund claims the following amounts under by-laws 65, 67, 68 and 69 (2):—

	Rs. A. P.
(1) Excess from club contributions [para. 17 (4)] ..	162 12 4
(2) The entire profit of the Credit Department [para. 17 (6)] ..	129 12 6
(3) One-fourth of profit of the Distribution Department, viz. [para. 17 (6)] ..	8,791 16 1
Total ..	8,883 7 0

If this sum of Rs. 8,883-7-0 is added to Rs. 8,362-15-0 the Reserve fund will increase to Rs. 17,765-12-0. It is not that a part of reserve has been invested in the house property. It will be better if the reserve fund is kept separate so in the name of Co-operative Societies.

23. The society convened 3 general and 39 committee meetings, of the latter only 7 meetings broke up for want of quorum.

24. General.—The directors were interested in the administration of the society. While settling the accounts I happened observed that many of the directors when with the stores to give personal instructions to the working staff and to learn the state of affairs. It may not be out of place here to mention in the annuaries, the names of Messrs. K. B. Ramaswami Aiyar, Aravam, M.A., B.A., LL.B. and F.R.S. and V. S. Ramaswami Aiyar, M.A., B.A., LL.B. Representative for good work as presented by the previous societies continues. No improvement is shown in the accounts under the new system. The accounts are all up to date and credit is due to the management especially to P. Subramanyam Aiyar, Chief Accountant, whose work was ably assisted by the General Deputy Collector Mr. K. Vijayaraghavachari Aiyar, in one of his reports. Good work progress is shown in all the transactions of the society. As a special feature of the development of the society during the year it may be mentioned that every branch of it was provided with a reading room, maintained by the funds mentioned out of the money in the common good fund. The reading rooms are supplied with newspapers and journals nearly relating to co-operation.

ACQUIT ORDER BY M. R. DWAN RAHADUR L. D. SWAMINATHAN PILLAI
AVARAGAL, M.A., J.D., C.A., REGISTRAR.

The accounts of No. 14 Triplicane Urban Co-operative Society, Limited, for the year 1910-11, as audited by the Head Clerk M. R. K. Vedaiah Aiyar, are passed.

1. The society closed during the year under review a total net profit of Rs. 15,547-6-2. Out of this amount Rs. 15,555-5-8 was derived from the Distribution Department and the remainder Rs. 125-0-6 accrued in the Credit Department. The amount due to reserves out of the profits of the year is as described below:—

	Rs.	P.	A.
(1) The entire net profit of the Credit Department .. ..	155	55	2
(2) The whole of entrance fees realized during the year .. ..	85	0	0
(3) Gift fund accumulations .. ..	60	0	0
(4) One-fourth of the profit of the Distribution Department after deducting from it entrance fees and gift fund accumulations ..	3,762	15	4
Total .. ..	4,912	7	6

Adding this amount to Rs. 5,688-15-6 which is already to the credit of the reserves, the total in that fund will now be Rs. 10,600-22-2.

2. The whole of the reserve fund (except Rs. 57-5-11 which is in the post office) is merged in the general funds of the society, it being understood that a portion equal to 10 per cent. of the estimated value of the house belonging to the society is created in house property. The portion comes to Rs. 4,410. The society reported in April last that a further sum of Rs. 3,272-5-5 was deposited in the fund deposit of Rs. 4,410 with the Madras Central Urban bank. The Society will now report how it proposes to invest the balance of reserve fund. The Registrar considers it necessary that the Triplicane society also should invest its reserve in the Madras Central Bank in the same way as other co-operative societies do. The society is therefore advised to separate the amount due to reserve—namely the portion contributed as being invested in the house property—and invest it as one fund deposit in the Madras Central Bank. The house should be leased, so otherwise it cannot be treated as reserve.

3. The reserve fund fund on the last day of the year amounted to Rs. 5,518-0-5. When the sum of Rs. 4,912-7-6 due out of the profits of the year is added to it, the total will become to Rs. 10,430-7-11.

4. The Triplicane society continues to be the leading distributive society in the Presidency and the Director, the members of Electoral Board and Panchayats desire to be congratulated on the very creditable report read above.

Office of the Registrar of Co-operative Credit Societies,
 Chapsack, Madras, 24 January 1912.

SUPPLEMENT TO PART II

THE FORT ST. GEORGE GAZETTE

No. 4.]

MADRAS, TUESDAY EVENING, JANUARY 22, 1912. (Part, 2nd of 2 p.)

REVENUE NOTIFICATION.

The following report on the working of the Madras Proprietary Estates' Village Service Act (II of 1891) and the Hereditary Village Offices Act (III of 1895) during the official year 1910-11, with the appended statements, is published for general information.

2. Statement I (Appointments made under sections 6, 10 and 11 of Act III of 1895).—Out of 3,697 appointments falling under sections 10 and 11 of the Act, 1,112 appointments were given to strangers owing apparently to the absence of competent men in the hereditary families. The corresponding figures for 1909-1910 were 3,209 and 790.

3. Statement II (Penalments inflicted under sections 7, 8 and 9 of Act III of 1895).—Although there was an increase over the preceding year in the number of persons fined by Tahsildars and Deputy Tahsildars and by proprietors, there was on the whole a decrease in the total number of penalments.

4. Statement III (Suits filed under section 13 of Act III of 1895).—It is satisfactory to note that there was a decrease in pendency at the close of the year as compared with that at the beginning, notwithstanding a slight increase in the total number of suits for disposal during the year.

5. Statement VII (Appeals to the Board against orders of appointment and against suit decisions).—Only 3 appeals out of 75 were pending at the close of the year. In the majority of cases, the decisions of the district officers were confirmed.

6. Statement VIII (Proprietary estates into which Act II of 1894 has been introduced and in which the establishments have been revised).—This shows the progress made in revising establishments in proprietary estates. The total number of estates in which revision was instituted up to the end of 1910-1911 was 4,601 against 2,409 for 1909-1910. No schemes were sanctioned in the Chingleput district as enfranchisement operations have not yet been completed.

VI. The officer conducting the sale may, at his discretion, refuse to accept the bid of any person on the ground that he has been convicted by a Criminal Court or has previously been guilty of such a breach of the condition of a license or of a contract under the Opium Act, as to render him undesirable as a holder of a license or on the ground that he is involved or to prevent arrangements to the detriment of Government interests or for any other valid reason. He may also refuse any bid which he may consider to be purely speculative, after recording his reasons for doing so. Village officers will not be allowed to bid for, or to have any deposit entered in shops for the sale of opium.

VII. The shops will be knocked down to the highest bidder, but the sale will be subject to formal confirmation of the Collector, who shall be at liberty to accept or reject any bid at his discretion. Such formal confirmation will be tantamount to an acceptance of the bid, unless stated by the Board of Revenue for special reasons, and will be necessary whether the sale be held by the Collector himself or by any other appointed by him.

VIII. In case of dispute the selling officer's decision shall be final. If for any reason the highest bid is rejected, the next highest shall be taken or the shop re-sold at his discretion.

IX. At the close of each day's sale, the deposits made by the unsuccessful bidders will be returned to them. As the money proceeds, each person whose bid is accepted shall deposit, if so required by the selling officer, or otherwise as the shop of the day's sale, make a further deposit * of half a month's dues (in addition to the deposit made under clause III) for each shop unless the initial deposit equals or exceeds one month's dues. Should he fail to do so, the deposit made by him under clause III will be forfeited and the shop will be put up again immediately by the selling officer or, if the above conditions are otherwise disposed of by the Collector and the details will be deferred from bidding again for the same or for any other shop.

X. Persons in whose shops have been knocked down and who have made deposits as provided in clauses III and IX shall also deposit † each further sum as with the former deposits will make up two months' dues (to be paid within ten days from the date of commencement of the Collector's management of the shop) and without unnecessary delay execute the necessary engagements and take all steps as the conditions hereinafter set forth. In the case of the purchaser's death after signing the agreement, it will be binding on his heirs and assigns. Should the initial deposit exceed the sum required to be deposited under this clause, the excess will be refunded unless the purchaser is required to deposit before that time under clause XI again.

XI. If on enquiry subsequent to sale the purchaser shall be found to be of doubtful solvency, he may be required either to deposit twice the sum prescribed in clause X again, or to get a security or surety to furnish a monthly bond for the due payment of all moneys that may become due by him under the terms of the contract. The bond shall be stamped (under No. 104, subrule 1, Act II of 1899) and registered at the expense of the purchaser if the amount secured exceeds Rs. 1,000.

XII. In the failure of any person to make deposit under clause X or to comply with the regulations under clause XI again or to execute engagements and take all licenses as aforesaid, the deposits already made may be forfeited and the shop re-sold under the orders of the District Officer on the directions of the Collector or otherwise disposed of by the latter officer.

XIII. Receipts effected under clause XII will be at the risk of the defaulting bidder, who will forfeit all gain, and, in the event of a loss, will be required to make good the deficiency between the total amount payable for the whole period under the terms of the original sale and the total amount payable by the successful bidder at the resale. In the latter case the deficiency deposits will be deducted from the sum coming from the resale, and the remainder, if any, will be recoverable from the defaulter in the same manner as if it were an amount of Local Revenue. Should, however, the defaulted deposits be greater than the loss by resale, the whole of such deposits will be credited to Government. The defaulting bidder will be similarly liable if the privilege is disposed of otherwise than by resale and such disposal results in loss to Government as compared with original sale.

XIV. The purchaser of the privilege is liable in the position prescribed for lessees of the condition set forth below, though a formal license may not have been issued to him.

XV. The deposit referred to in clause X or clause XI, as the case may be, will be taken as security for the due performance of the conditions of the license. If the Taxpayer II and Licensee agree, it may be credited towards the last instalment of the dues payable by the latter.

No opium other than that obtained in the manner specified above shall be sold or received or possessed by shopkeepers.
10. The licensee shall keep on reserve quantity of opium and intoxicating drugs other than morphine or cocaine or preparations for smoking than that fixed by the Collector at the time of granting the license.
11. If the license is used as a stock for retail sales or if the licensee knowingly sells opium to an opium smuggler or if the Collector has reason to suspect that the licensee is guilty of any of these offences, he may, after entering his reasons, forthwith cancel the license and re-sell or otherwise dispose of the privilege in the rule of the license. The sale of the whole stock shall become due at once, when a license is cancelled under this condition.

Laws and Regulations, Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council, and Bills published under Rule 23.

NOTIFICATION.

Calcutta, the 22nd January 1912.

No. 5.—The Governor General has been pleased, under rule 23 of the Rules for the conduct of the Legislative Business of the Council of the Governor General, to order the publication in the Weekly Gazette in English of the following Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons relating thereto, and the Bill and Statement of Objects and Reasons are accordingly hereby published for general information:—

No. 25.

A Bill to make better provision for the protection and preservation of certain wild birds and animals.

Whereas it is expedient to make better provision for the protection and preservation of certain wild birds and animals, It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. (1) That Act may be called the Wild Birds and Animals Protection Act, 1912.

(2) It extends to the whole of British India, including British Baluchistan, the British Punjab and the Province of Sind.

3. (1) This Act applies to the first schedule to the birds and animals, when in their wild state, specified in the Schedule.

1912-13, No. 25.

(2) The Local Government may, by notification in the local official Gazette, apply the provisions of this Act to any kind of wild bird or animal, other than those specified in the Schedule, which, in its opinion, it is desirable to protect or preserve.

1. The Local Government may, by notification in the local official Gazette, declare the whole or any part thereof to be a close time throughout the whole or any part of the territory for any kind of wild bird or animal to which this Act applies; and during such close time, and within the areas specified in such notification, it shall be unlawful—

(a) to capture any such bird or animal, or to kill any such bird or animal which has not been captured before the commencement of such close time;

(b) to sell or buy, or offer to sell or buy, or to possess, any such bird or animal which has not been captured or killed before the commencement of such close time, or the flesh thereof;

(c) if any plumage has been taken from any such bird captured or killed during such close time, to sell or buy, or to offer to sell or buy, or to possess, such plumage.

Penalty. 4. (2) Whoever does, or attempts to do, any act in contravention of section 2, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

(3) Whoever, having already been convicted of an offence under this section, is again convicted thereunder shall, on every subsequent conviction, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month, or with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, or with both.

5. (2) When any person is convicted of an offence punishable under this Act, the sentencing Magistrate may direct that any bird or animal or the flesh or plumage of any bird or animal in respect of which such offence has been committed, and any arms or implements which have been used for the commission of such offence, shall be confiscated.

(3) Such confiscation may be in addition to the other punishment provided by section 4 for such offence.

6. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to affect the capture or killing of a wild animal by any person in defence of himself or any other person, or in the capture or killing of any wild bird or animal or land fish for protection of a standing crop or growing fruit.

7. The Wild Birds Protection Act, 1907, is hereby repealed.

THE SCHEDULE.

(1) Elephas, dhole, leopard, jungle cat, porcupine, rhinoceros, tiger, wild boar, spotted deer, sambar, gaur, wild ass, wild camel, lion, tiger, leopard and langur.

(2) Antelope, deer, goat, buffalo, dog, quail, quail, hare, rabbit, porcupine and sheep.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Wild Birds Protection Act, 1907 (XX of 1907), enables rules to be made prohibiting the possession or sale, during the breeding season, of any kind of wild bird recently killed or taken, or the importation of the plumage of any kind of wild bird during such season. Power is also given to Local Governments to declare these provisions to apply to any animals of game other than birds. The Act applies only to municipalities and panchayats, and refers throughout to British India. The need for a general law which should have the effect of protecting those wild birds and animals which are threatened with extermination has been abundantly manifested, and the present Bill is the outcome of that demand.

2. It will apply, in the first instance, to the birds and animals specified in the Schedule. As, however, it would be difficult to provide, for the whole of India, a single list sufficiently exhaustive to cover all the kinds of birds and animals, the provisions of which widely varying local conditions may render desirable, it is proposed to permit Local Governments to add to the list as they desire.

3. The Bill will empower Local Governments to declare, if necessary, an absolute prohibition, either throughout the year or for any specified part of the year, and extending to the whole or any part of its territories, against the capture or killing of any animals or birds to which the Act applies, or the possession of such animals or birds, or of the plumage of the latter.

4. It is proposed, however, to exempt from the operation of the measures any person who captures or kills a wild animal in defence of himself or of any other person, or who captures or kills any wild bird or animal in land fish for protection of a standing crop or growing fruit.

The 15th October 1911.

The Hon'ble Sir James Macdonald: "With your permission, Sir, I beg to lay on the table, on behalf of the Hon'ble Finance Member, a statement* showing the proportion of appointments on Rs. 500 and over held by Indians and Europeans in 1910, as compared with 1905 and 1907. This is the statement which was presented to the Hon'ble Sir Guy Flemming Wilson's reply given to the question put by the Hon'ble Sir Guy Flemming Wilson at the meeting of Council held on the 14th March 1911.

I also seek permission to lay on the table another statement* asked for by the Hon'ble Mr. Macdonald in the question put by him at the meeting of Council held on the 22nd September 1911. Part of the question has already been replied to at the meeting before mentioned."

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

The Hon'ble Mr. GOSWAMI asked:—

"Will the Government be pleased to state whether the sum of 50 lakhs for 'the promotion of truly popular education' sanctioned by His Excellency, the Governor General on the day of the Committee Report at Delhi, includes the present State expenditure on primary education or is in addition to it; and whether the grant is an annual one or is only a non-recurring statement?"

The Hon'ble Sir James Macdonald replied:—

"The sum of 50 lakhs for 'promotion of truly popular education' sanctioned by His Excellency the Governor General on the day of the Committee Report at Delhi will be an Imperial grant in addition to the existing expenditure on primary education and will be an annually recurring grant."

The Hon'ble Mr. GOSWAMI asked:—

"Will the Government be pleased to state what Municipalities and District Boards or Councils in each Presidency or Province were invited to express an opinion on the Elementary Education Bill now before the Council, and how many of such bodies have expressed an opinion on the measure? Will the Government lay on the table copies of all opinions on the Bill received from Local Bodies by the various Local Governments and Administrations?"

The Hon'ble Mr. Sir M. A. Jinnah replied:—

"All communications which have been received on the Elementary Education Bill have been printed as papers relating to the Bill, and copies thereof have already been sent to all Hon'ble Members. A set of such of them as contain opinions or summaries of opinions of Municipalities and District Boards or Councils is lying on the table; the information which the Hon'ble Member desires will be found, so far as it can be obtained, in those papers."

The Hon'ble Mr. GOSWAMI:—

"May I say in connection with this that what I want is opinions received by Local Governments and Administrations, not by the Government of India—all opinions received by Local Governments and Administrations."

The Hon'ble Mr. Sir M. A. Jinnah:—

"Sir, I shall be in a position to answer the question of the Hon'ble Member after further consideration."

time and energy on the exercise of party executive power and duties. A careful examination of those by the Royal Commission on Decentralisation has clearly demonstrated the agency of effecting devolution of such powers and duties on subordinate authorities. Numerous instances dealing with difficulties of the many branches of administration had, their old shooks here from time to time led up to a consideration of a more of unimportant centralisation of executive authority. The actions of these authorities relating to such considerations are a legend in themselves, and any attempt on my part to place before the Council the formidable array will be misunderstood, or to require the correct lowering of each of these would require an examination of the particular Act in which they had place. This will be a gigantic effort for our legislative assembly even if there was a disposition to spread out the entire session far beyond their usual length and without any appreciable break in the continuity of the sittings. When introducing this Bill, my Hon'ble colleagues, Sir John Jackson, speaking before the Council the extraordinary difficulties with which the Government of Bombay and the Government of India have met in the work of collecting and abolishing together the various settlements and their actions with a view to the preparation of a general Decentralisation Act. But even if an entire task of the new is put on the political table of the assembly and a fairly comprehensive schedule be produced, the result will hardly justify such deviations from the point of view of the usefulness of the undertaking. A general Decentralisation Act embodying specific amendments of every Act affected would involve enormous legislation without any modernity of shape, set to speak of the rigidity and incomprehensible tangle from such a questionable source. On the other hand, an attempt to infuse on the deliberations of this Council schemes of party amendment will be to court not only undue delay, but which is far more undesirable the serious debasement of its ordinary work of legislation. This will be particularly deplorable at the present juncture when a heavy programme of urgent legislative business has to engage our individual attention for some time to come. Misuse and unwise consideration of the difficulties and objectives that attach to me embarking on either of these two courses leave no option but to abide them in terms of an Act of delegation to provide for devolution of authority in certain cases with proper safeguards, and under effective control. The Bill before the Council gives prominence to the two principles that underlie its enactment. On the one hand it provides to cover a wide area for the application of its provisions and on the other it judiciously restricts its operation to cases for the disposal of which administrative convenience is affected without in the slightest degree endangering the liberty or the rights of the subject. The existence of the two Codes of Criminal and Civil Procedure and of any amendments relating to the constitution of the Civil Courts from the parties of the Bill as an itself sufficient to secure apprehensions of the improper use of the powers conferred by the proposed legislation. A further evidence is contained in clause (4) of section 4 of the Bill. It relates to cases of previous sanction or removal by a superior authority to the exercise of power under any enactment by an inferior authority. Even for administrative purposes this provision removes down the scope of the Bill considerably, but regard for the principle of devolution of control is the justification for its inclusion in the Bill. It will be observed that these two principles are so interwoven that it will be hard to find any matter of a truly constitutional character in respect of which it is possible to make a delegation of power under this Bill to exercise its subordinate authority. Within the narrow limits of the scope of this Bill additional provisions have been taken by suggesting the powers of delegation to the conditions and down to the various sub-clauses of section 4. These are intended to ensure publicity and to be made known before a single deviation of power can be given effect to. I do not propose to dwell on all these conditions as they will be considered by Hon'ble Members in due course. But I venture to offer a few remarks on the conditions related to sections 4(a) and (7). Taken together these two sub-clauses mark a great departure in the relations of the Executive Government to its Legislative Councils of the country. This part of the Bill emphasises a point of view which is of growing interest in the affairs of India. To hold devolution of authority to be wise till the draft legislation has been considered by Hon'ble Members who may wish to put interpretations or make resolutions on the same, but, although in the present instance, it is the application of the provisions of this Bill, a deep significance. It is better with parliament and not up a precedence of special rules with regard to the constitution of the duly constituted representatives of the people with the executive administration of the country. It is the first glimpse in India of the ecology of the procedure adopted under some similar arrangements in the House of Parliament in England. True it is that the constitutional strength of this Council is not more than merely advisory, but to seek that advice before action is taken directs a large measure of the appreciation of the views of this assembly by Government. Should a Bill introduced under a hostile action largely supported by Hon'ble Members representing the people, Government will be in a position to pause for further consideration of the proposed action before final action can proceed. This is a feature of the Bill that will create a new bond of union, help and cooperation which bids fair to open a new chapter in the public life of the country in its relation to administrative reform.

"Before I close my remarks I should like to point out that legislative sanction to such delegations of powers and duties as is embodied in this Bill is neither novel nor unprecedented. The Town of London Act can be quoted as an illustration in England. In India the principle of delegation has received legislative sanction in Act V of 1902, Act XVIII of 1903 in reference to the case of Burma. In very recent times a striking example is found in the Indian Civil Procedure Code, 1908, where many more duties that were part and parcel of the old law have by delegation devolved on the High or Chief Courts. Decisions, where courts are subject to legislative control but only the actions of the executive Government. Numerous other instances can be quoted in which the direct application of the law has been delegated by Indian Acts to executive authority on the basis of a mere delegation without any of the effective safeguards and provisions taken in the Bill before the Council.

"There is one more point to which I should like to make a passing reference. The Bill does not provide for the constitution of an order of delegation now. It is passed. Some of the opinions that we have received on this Bill seem to want the scheme as a mere measure. In this connection I need only point to section II of the General Clauses Act of 1897 which is a sufficient remedy for forwarding, varying or rescinding such an order.

"I trust, Sir, that an careful examination of the terms of this Bill, Hon'ble Members will agree with me that this is a modest measure of real and substantial reform that I have the honour to ask
